

Since 1996 the Maserati Club has held the Grand Prix Dinner prior to the conduct of the AGP in Melbourne. Since 2004 with the creation of the Club Awards the Committee has used the occasion to mark the performance of those club members, who in the opinion of the Committee, had memorable achievements (and moments) in motorsport in the previous calendar year. 2011 marks the seventh year of these Club Awards. This year we have once again selected a near-city location and a familiar venue ... O'Connells Centenary Hotel, which is located in Coventry Street, South Melbourne ... it's close to the Albert Park circuit and in a location where it is easy to find a place to park if you come by car. O'Connells has become one of Melbourne's dining institutions as well known for its ambience as it is for its food. Expect a great night and a great meal in the special surrounds of O'Connells - it is, after all a fitting venue for the occasion of the 16th Grand Prix Dinner and the 8th presentation of the Club Awards. We hope to see you there - it should be a great night!
